National Conference on Teachers' Accreditation and Certification

Islamabad: United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and National Accreditation Council for Teacher Education (NACTE) organized a two-day National Conference on Teachers Accreditation and Certification at the Allama Iqbal Open University in Islamabad.

The conference was organized to bring together stakeholders for the adoption of a uniform and harmonized strategy on teacher accreditation, certification, licensing and registration at the national, provincial and area level. The conference was the follow-up of the recommendations of the Inter Provincial Forum on Teachers Accreditation organized by both agencies in October 2011.

More than 60 participants from Pakistan including teachers and academicians from Punjab, Sindh, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Balochistan, Gilgit Baltistan, Azad Jammu and Kashmir and Islamabad Capital Territory discussed and presented their plans for introducing teachers’ quality assurance mechanism and developed a road map and action plan for registration, licensing and certification.
