UNESCO and PMD organized two days International Seminar on “Reliable Flood Forecasting” in Lahore

Lahore, 18 December, 2013: United Nation Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and Pakistan Meteorological Department (PMD) has organized two days International seminar on Reliable Flood Forecasting at the Avari hotel in Lahore.

During the two days seminar, various stakeholders including experts, representatives and officials of PMD, Government of Japan, UNESCO, JICA, JAXA, ICHARM, PCRWR, BMKG, UNSGAB, NDMA, SUPARCO, FFC and Irrigation Departments discussed mechanism to meet the challenges for data, model and forecasting skills for improvement of flood forecasting and early warning system in Pakistan. The seminar was a series of UNESCO initiatives aimed to contribute to the strategic strengthening of flood warning and management capacity of Pakistan project.